If your network connection is poor, you may get stuck in "connecting to" for a long time. Find the friend you want to play with on the list. If so, disable the antivirus temporarily and add the game to the firewall whitelist. Click on the 'Back to Game' button at the bottom left of the dialog box to return to Terraria. If you don't know the password, ask your friend to continue. In this case, enable the function on your router immediately. How does Terraria Join Via Steam not work? Click on the 'Invite Friends' button in the middle of the menu. He will then join you in the world of his friends at the default spawning point, giving the status message "[Player] has joined." Ask them to send you an invitation and follow the steps in the next section. Inviting friendsjI NOTE: These steps are only necessary if Invitation Only mode has been selected in the server configuration. Solution 2. You can do this by logging in to your browser through the gateway access on your own or you can call your ISP for help. Check if you are "online" on Steam. If you want to join a Journey Mode game, you should have a Journey character. Click on the triangle drop-down menu next to your name and click on 'Join the game'. But running outdated games can make Terraria Join Via Steam not work. This will open the Steam overlay to the 'Friends' dialog. If the above methods do not work for you, you should solve the network problems in the following way: Check if you have a good network connection. Do not press the Esc key to close the Steam window, instead close it by clicking on the tab from the center up; Press Esc to send you back to the main menu of Terraria. Even people who don't understand how to inform can win something. If the notification <sup>3</sup> expired, open and Steam overlays manually using the combination of keys Ä C ~ Shift + Tab (or whatever you have set the key link). Create a correct character If you want to join the game of someone's classical way, you must have a classic character. If your state is Ä «Out» or something thus, please bend it online. You should see an open chat window with the invitation. Select a character to play, or create a new one. If you choose only friends, your friends can join the world directly through multiplayer> join Steam. Go to the main screen of the title and click on this notification. The following methods can help you. Select a character to play, or create a new one. I have restarted the game and verified the integrity of the game cache many times, but it still does not work. Enter a password or leave blank if you do not want the server protected by password. If you want to create a dedicated server, see guide: Settings of a terraria server. The characteristics of the game are exploring, creating, building and fighting several creatures in a randomly generated 2D world. Please update the game at the last version. Then you will join you in your world of friends at the default playback, giving the status message Ä «[Player] has joined.» Notes jI You are allowed to configure a server only for invitations or a single server For friends, and you can disable the ability of those who join to allow someone else to join (disable friends from friends who are joined / disable friends who send invitations to others).
